

6. Author biography: Prepare a page or less on your unique preparation to author on this topic. Specifically, highlight key accomplishments in your academic and professional career that qualify you as an expert authority on this subject.
7. Related books: Please list two or three currently published books dealing with the same general subject area as your book with which your book might compete or be compared. Please list the last name of the author, the title of the book and the publisher.
8. Manuscript delivery date: Please provide a prospective submission date. Keep in mind we understand you are busy; consequently we prefer a realistic timeline rather than an overly ambitious submission date.
9. Table of contents: Provide a proposed table-of-contents with sub-heads down to the third level if necessary.
10. Local sales opportunities: Provide an estimate of the number of copies you will use yearly in your executive teaching and/or consulting practice.
11. Author Biographies/CVs: Include relevant work experience, education, writing and speaking experience, relevant professional memberships and any distinguishing information.